

"I love the Life and the Work"

... the typical answer of a C.W.A.C. girl when asked her opinion of service in the Women's Army.

JOIN THE

C.W.A.C.

THE NEED IS GREATER NOW!

Support our boys
now fighting in Sicily

Here are a few of the vital
C.W.A.C. jobs for which you will have every chance to qualify:

- DRIVER MECHANIC
- TELETYPE
- TELEGRAPHIST
- RADIO OPERATOR
- WIRELESS TECHNICIAN
- DIETITIAN
- DENTAL ASSISTANT
- TAILORESS
- ACCOUNTANT
- STENOGRAPHER
- INSTRUMENT MECHANIC
- MOTOR MECHANIC

C.W.A.C. RECEPTION CENTRE
1478 Peel St., Montreal.

I would like more information about the C.W.A.C.

Name.....

Address.....

.....

.....

Recruitment Ad – Canadian Women’s Army Corps

The Canadian Women’s Army Corps (CWAC) was established in 1941. While women were not allowed to serve in combat, they were needed to fill support roles so that more men could be freed up to fight.

This recruiting advertisement from 1943 listed some of the jobs women who joined the CWAC could perform.

Canadian Women’s Army Corps
Recruitment Advertisement
Canadian Jewish Review, 13 August 1943

Transcription

“I love the Life and the Work”
... the typical answer of a C.W.A.C. girl when asked her opinion of service in the Women’s Army.

Join the C.W.A.C.

The need is greater now!
Support our boys now fighting in Sicily

Here are a few of the vital C.W.A.C. jobs for which you will have every chance to qualify:

Driver Mechanic
Teletypist
Telegraphist
Radio Operator
Wireless Technician
Dietitian
Dental Assistant
Tailoress
Accountant
Stenographer
Instrument Mechanic
Motor Mechanic

C.W.A.C. Reception Centre
1478 Peel St., Montreal.

I would like more information about the C.W.A.C.
Name ....
Address ....