1	4 April 1944. . Thanks for the letter of sympathy. Have just received notice that their son is a POW. They know that he is still in danger, but they are happy just to know that he is still alive. Hope that all the members of the crew are safe. Cleeman is their only son, and the younger of two daughters. Asks for a photograph of McKiel. Would like to know if McKiel is a POW also. Easter Greetings.

Letters from the Crew's Families to Mrs. McKiel: Mildred Hodgins, mother of Sgt Middupper Gunner, Mervyn Hodgins, Waubaushene, ON (19980120-009)

Item number	Contents
1	29 March 1944. Apologizes that she has not written back, because she had been very ill, and now that she is better, she wishes to acknowledge the hope that Mrs. McKiel's letter gave to her. Mervyn spoke very highly of his crew. Asks for the name of the squadron and any other details. Has another son who is a Pilot Officer in the Ferry Command, stationed at Nassau, Bahamas. Hopes that the next letter that Mrs. McKiel receives is one that will bring her son home
2	11 April 1944. Delighted that she has heard that McKiel is a POW, and that he is still alive. Still has not heard from Mervyn. Includes envelope with 4-cent stamp.

Item number	Contents
3	11 May 1944. Glad to hear that everyone was “fortunate enough to leave the aircraft safely”, and feels more hopeful. Happy that she has heard from McKiel and thinks it is doubly hard to bear, as Mrs. McKiel is a widow. Getting her cottage ready. Still has not heard any news of Mervyn.
4	10 September 1944. Heard word from Ottawa that Mervyn lost his life on 25 February and was buried at Erxhausen, 10 miles south of Frankfurt in grave number one. Hopes that the “terrible war” will be over soon, and she can get in contact with some of the crew to hear about Mervyn. Includes envelope with 4-cent stamp.

Letters from the Crew’s Families to Mrs. McKiel: GB Keiller, mother of Flt Sgt Albert C “Bus” Keiller, Owen Sound, ON (19980120-010)

Item number	Contents
1	24 March 1944. Thanks Mrs. McKiel for the letter and hopes that her son is still alive. Remarks that if they do not come back, then “God’s way is best.” No envelope included.
2	Undated. Thanks Mrs. McKiel for the letter, and hopes that Albert is safe. Albert spoke very well of all the boys. Included in an envelope dated April 12.
3	11 April 1944. Received word on 4 April that her son “Bus” is not dead, but he is a POW along with McKiel. It is a relief that they are safe and that they will hear from them again. Has heard from all the mothers but one. Envelope included.
4	27 July 1944. Wondering if she has had any more news from McKiel since the last letter. Asks for a photograph of McKiel, as she will send a photograph of her son. Has heard from Mrs. Hodgins who still has not heard anything from her son. Includes envelope with 4-cent stamp.
5	27 August 1944. Thanks her for the photograph of McKiel and sends a picture of “Bus” at 24 years old. Has received a couple of letters and cards from “Bus”: he is fine. POW meetings in Owen Sound and attends them regularly. Hopes that the war will be over soon. Included in the envelope with a 4-cent stamp is a photograph of “Bus”.

Letters from the Crew's Families to Mrs. McKiel: Mrs. Esther Loomer, mother of Rear Gunner Roy Loomer, Kingsport, NS (19980120-011)

Item number	Contents
1	14 March 1944. When the first letter that her son had gone missing, she tried to find Mrs. McKiel's address. When the second letter came from Ottawa, hers came with it. Roy felt very highly of the crew. Asks if she hears any news to share it with her. Includes envelope with 4-cent stamp.
2	4 April 1944. Just heard from Ottawa that her son Roy is no longer missing, and he is now a POW. Hopes that McKiel is safe and that the rest of the crew is together. Hopes that the war does not last any longer. Has heard from Ottawa and the International Red Cross. Hopes that Mrs. McKiel receives good news. Includes envelope with 4-cent stamp.
3	31 May 1944. Pleased to hear Mrs. McKiel has received two letters and two cards from her son. She was glad to hear that McKiel got out of the plane safely. Two of the boys are missing because they tried to escape. Feels sorry for Mrs. Hodgins. Roy gave the Red Cross praise. Glad that all the boys are safe, and happy to hear from them, even if they get 2 letters a month from them. Postponing a wedding that they had planned for the summer. Includes envelope with 4-cent stamp.
4	4 October 1944. Wedding was a success, and they had a good time. Sent Roy a package of blankets and a personal parcel on 18 August. Has had word from Roy, and been in contact with the Red Cross, Nova Scotia branch. He is at M Staium Lager 357, near Brussels border. He cannot write, however she has heard from Keiler and Hawkins. Hopes that the war will end soon. Asks if she has heard anything from McKiel lately. Includes envelope with 4-cent stamp.

	about 6 weeks ago, however it had no address on it, so she cannot send anything to him yet. Has heard from Mrs. Loomer and Mrs. Hodgins. Very sad that Mrs. Hodgins son is the only one not accounted for, but hopes that by now she has heard better news. Extends an invitation for her or her sons to stay with her in England. Includes envelope with 2½ pence stamp
3	4 June 1944. Thanks her very much for her airgraph; was a pleasure to hear that her son is safe. Received a card from him saying that he is safe and uninjured. Hopes that Mrs. Hodgins has heard better news. Asks for a photograph of McKiel. Has received one from Mrs. Hawkins. Roy planned on visiting Canada after the war, and Mrs. Parsons hopes that someday he will be able to visit Mrs. McKiel. Includes envelope with 2½ pence stamp.

Letters from the Crew's Families to Mrs. McKiel: M Walker, mother of Wireless/Air Gunner Angus Walker, Meductic, NB (19980120-013)

Item number	Contents
1	5 April 1944. Received word that Angus is a POW. Great relief to know that he is still alive. Writes about her experience of when she received the word. She has another son with the Carleton York's in Italy. Envelope included.
2	19 May 1944. Has received Angus's POW number and the name of his camp. Still not received word from him, and she was wondering if Mrs. McKiel was sending packages to McKiel before she has heard from him. Finds it very difficult to get everything she requires to send him. Wants to know what Mrs. McKiel is sending as she thinks that St. John is about the same climate as Stalag Luft III.
3	31 July 1944. Writes that they do issue a special Blanket label. Received a letter from Mrs. Loomer. Mentions sending different things, and what parcels, weights etc they can send. Has received 2 letters from Angus and that he does not say much about what he is doing, but he asked for a geometry set. Also received a letter from Mr. Parsons saying that his son is a POW also. Remarks that Mervyn Hodgins' mother must be beginning to give up hope
4	2 October 1944. War news is looking much brighter. Received Angus' August letters, however she has not received his June ones. Received a letter from a roommate of Angus at Stalag Luft III. Went to the semi-annual Red Cross meeting on Tuesday, and Dr. Routley talked at length on what was being done for the prisoners of war. Remarks that it certainly is a great organization. Informs Mrs. McKiel that Mervyn Hodgins was killed on 25 February. Includes envelope with 4-cent stamp.

Written to send courage, strength and patience to Mrs. McKiel during her period of waiting for more news. Writes that McKiel was a good man. Hopes that she will hear from McKiel soon. Includes an RCAF stamped envelope.
5	5 April 1944. From WF Butcher. Writes that it is good news that McKiel is now a POW. Reassures Mrs. McKiel that the International Red Cross and other organizations are doing so much for the prisoners. Includes an RCAF stamped envelope.
6	27 February 1944. From Dan H Lybbert, F/O. Last night, received news that McKiel has gone missing. Does not think that he will be gone for long, however he must plan for the worst. Sends his sympathy to Mrs. McKiel. He and McKiel first met in Halifax, and they were always together. Hopes that there will be good news here in the next few weeks. Written on Air Force Air letter.
7	14 April 1944. From DH Lybbert. Just got back from a week leave, and is happy when he found out that McKiel is safe in Germany. McKiel's belongings have been locked up, and kept for when he returns. It was McKiel's first operational trip when he went missing. Would like to see Bill (McKiel) soon. His hometown is Glenwood, AB. Written on Air Force Air letter.
8	23 May 1944. From DH Lybbert. By now, he almost knows Mrs. McKiel because McKiel used to talk about her so much. Glad that she has heard from McKiel and that he is well. Appreciates the invitation that was sent for him to visit. He is stationed near York.
9	8 June 1944. From DH Lybbert. Thanks Mrs. McKiel for sending him a box of chocolates. Received a letter from Mrs. McKiel's sister. Glad to hear through her sister that McKiel is alright. Written on Airgraph paper.

10	3 April 1944. From Mildred, Petite Riviere, NS. Perhaps sister of Mrs. McKiel. Her and mother are pleased that Mrs. McKiel is happy at Easter. Hopes that McKiel can escape from prison. Writes about her and mother's trip to Halifax. Prays that she continues to hear good news about McKiel. Includes envelope with 4-cent stamp.
11	6 April 1944 (envelope). From Mabel, Hampstead, NB. Was rejoicing when she heard that McKiel was not lost, and that he is a POW. Looking forward to hearing that he is well. Includes envelope with 4-cent stamp
12	3 August 1944. From Machum RH, Ldg/Wtr (Leading Writer) of the RCNVR HMCS [censored]. Writing to McKiel at his mother's home hoping that one day it will reach him. Happy that he landed, and is sorry that he is now a POW. Writes about general correspondence. Asks for a letter as soon as possible to know that he is all right. Letter is typed, and censors have blacked out what ship he was on. Includes envelope from HMC Ship.
13	29 February 1944. From John A Olive, soldier. Had been corresponding with McKiel since their enlistment. Writing to give his sympathies and hopes that McKiel will be safe.
14	21 May 1945. From F Ralaland, Culmstock. Letter of sympathy, and relief after word that McKiel is POW. Hope that he is not injured, and not suffering any discomfort. Written on Air Graph paper.
15	3 April 1944. From Betty Raymond, London, ON. Introduces herself as McKiel used to come by and visit while he was stationed at Crumlin. Very sorry to hear that he is reported missing last week, but they are all hoping he is safe. Asks for Mrs. McKiel to drop a line regarding any news on McKiel. Includes envelope with 4-cent stamp
16	3 May 1944. From B Raymond. Thanks Mrs. McKiel for telling her that McKiel is a POW. Hopes his crew landed safely but supposes that it is asking too much. She hopes that Mrs. McKiel hears from him soon, as she cannot write airmail however, she would like to write him soon.
17	29 November 1944. Asks for McKiel's address to send some books. Complains about the delays on mail. Remembers that when he left, he said that he would be back in two years. Hopes that he was right. Includes envelope and airmail stamp.
