

Poster

This is an example of a public notice that was posted during the First World War. Posters were made to recruit new volunteers, to promote desirable behaviour, and to raise money for the war effort.

Copies of archival documents